

Alumni Member Spotlight

Showing your Foundation Board!!!

Leading the Foundation to new heights is Carina Salvadori, President. She loves summer and dining at the Capital Grille in downtown Milwaukee. Her favorite sport is driving fast and believes the greatest invention is the Clorox wipe.

Tim Osowski has been on the board for 7 years, currently an at-large member. He works as a Senior Accountant at Osowski Accounting, he enjoys participating in/watching nearly every sport. Although he supports the Chicago Bears, he does enjoy Wisconsin's craft beer!

Sean Walker, Treasurer and Alumni member of 11 years, works for Clifton Gunderson and calls Jo Jo's Pizza Pub his favorite place to dine, as well as his 'Cheers'. He believes the greatest invention of all time is the computer and one thing you can't live without is good health.

Salvatore Robert Giuseppi Strehlow, Commercial Banker for M&I Bank, is an at-large member for the Foundation. He enjoys dining at the Black Rose and sipping a nice glass of Vino. Sal also wisely believes the greatest invention is the toilet/indoor plumbing.

Heather Fortney, Secretary of the Foundation, works for Chase as a Loss and Mitigation Underwriter. She believes the cell phone is the greatest invention and loves a good mango margarita.

At-large member of the Foundation and Audit Advisor at Manpower is John Graham. He believes you cannot live without oxygen and just as equally, his favorite drink, a John Daly.

Dan Fregoso, at-large member, works as an Information Systems Specialist for Northwestern Mutual. His favorite season is spring, going hand in hand with his favorite sport, baseball. His beverage of choice is a Cherry Coke and cannot live without his iPod.

Todd Strehlow, at-large member for the Foundation is huge Packer fan who believes the greatest invention is Leinenkugel's on tap. His favorite spot to dine is at home, because no one beats his wife's, Maria's, cooking!

Member at-large, Jeff Scanlon, is a Financial Analyst at GE Healthcare. He can often be found listening to and performing country hits with his band Hadley. Jeff's favorite movie is the Notebook and loves a good Apple Martini.

Fall Festivities

Calling all wine lovers!!! The Foundation is hosting a wine tasting Wednesday October 13, 2010 at Vino 100 on Water Street. Tickets are $25 and include your tasting and light snacks. The event will begin at 6:30pm and will conclude with 50/50 raffle at 9:00pm. For more information or to reserve tickets contact Heather Fortney (fortney.heather@gmail.com or 608-780-5779).

Get out the face paint and costumes, it's that time again! The AKPsi Halloween Party is right around the corner! Friday 10/22, hosted at the infamous Buckhead Saloon, the night will be filled with drink specials, Jello shots, costume contests, and more. The fun begins with free cover from 7-10pm (say AKPsi at the door) and will continue throughout the night.

True Blue Crew

Although the Crew didn't have quite the season we had hoped, the City of Festivals sure concluded it with a bang. 30 alumni, students and friends gathered to end the Brewers season in a tailgate extravaganza for the Marlins game (9/25). Despite typical chilly Wisconsin fall weather, the day was filled with food, music, fun and, in true Milwaukee fashion, full-fledged beer pong games. The Brew Crew didn't take home the win but the Alumni wrapped the season up on a high note.

4th Annual Professional Event

This November the City of Festivals is hosting their Annual Professional Event featuring owner of the Milwaukee Wave, Jim Lindenburg. The event will take place Wednesday, November 10th at the Italian Conference Center (631 E Chicago St Milwaukee 53202). Cocktail hour will begin at 6:00pm (cash bar and hors d'oeuvres), Jim will begin speaking at 7:00pm, and the event will conclude with a 50/50 raffle and prizes at 8pm. Tickets will be pre-sold (Students $10, Dues paying Alumni $20, Community $25) and at the door (Students $15, Dues paying Alumni $25, Community $30).
